

Information Alone Won't Help You Build a Better Benefits Program, But Wisdom Will

- ▶ The integrating essence of United Benefit Advisors[®] is the Wisdom Network strategy which uses special technology that allows our members to collaborate across time, space and organizational boundaries.

By working collaboratively with other top independent benefits firms, UBA Members are positioned to thrive in response to the new challenges of the changing employee benefits marketplace.

This exchange of expertise and knowledge helps UBA Member Firms acquire a broader perspective and wisdom that yields more rewarding solutions for employers.

Shared Wisdom. Powerful Results.

Shared Wisdom Leads to Powerful Results:

Nowhere is that better demonstrated than in UBA's Wisdom Network, an online meeting place that pools the collective knowledge and experience of UBA's membership

Access to Experts: Email forums give immediate access to hundreds of benefits professionals who can provide answers to benefits questions in their personal areas of expertise

Up-to-the-Minute Information: Blogs and RSS feeds from top minds in the benefits industry provide benefits news as it happens and help to chart the future of the industry

Proven Communications: Employee communications campaigns that have been developed and used by UBA Members are shared to allow for quick, clear messaging to employees about a variety of topics

National Strength, Local Service: Collaboration with other UBA Members provides employers with preferred pricing, a wide range of technology solutions and local experts no matter where your business takes you
